

January 2017

Email all queries and feedback to: kotuku.media@xtra.co.nz

IFAJ Food Security Award

IFAJ has announced the theme for this year's award recognising excellence in Global Food Security Reporting. The theme is The Impact of Climate Change on Agriculture, Forestry and Fisheries.

The award is sponsored by FAO, and can be work of an individual or a team, can be for print, broadcast or electronic media, and must have been published between 1 January and 31 December, 2016.

The winner will be receive all travel and accommodation expenses to attend the 2018 IFAJ annual congress in The Netherlands, as well as all travel and accommodation expenses to a FAO projects.

There is a short deadline for this award, it is Friday, 27 January at 5pm. More details and an entry form are attached to this newsletter.

The New Zealand Guild can nominate two separate entries for this award which has a great prize.

Get your entries in very quickly!!!

Photography award

Don't forget to enter your best photograph from last year in the IFAJ Star Prize for Photography. There are three different categories, People, Production and Nature/Landscape, and photographs must have been published between 1 January and 31 December, 2016.

This award does not have to be through the Guild although you must be a Guild member. You must fill out a current application form on line, off the IFAJ website. <http://www.ifaj.org/contests-and-awards/photo-contest.html>

The deadline is 1 February, and there are good cash prizes for the category winners and the overall winner! The details are on the NZ Guild website.

The 2016 Star photo winners were:

Subs due soon

Treasurer, Mick Calder, will be sending out subscription invoices in the next couple of weeks. Remember there is a good discount for prompt payment!